

LA CONQUISTADORA
Our Country's Oldest Madonna

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY, but more often called, "LA CONQUISTADORA," by her subjects, because she had come to Santa Fe, in the days of their founding parents and grandparents, the "Conquistadores." Here LA CONQUISTADORA is enthroned on her beautiful hand-carved stone altar in the old Chapel of Our Lady of the Rosary, at the Rosario Cemetery, in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The Chapel was built in 1812.

Photo by: Custom Craft Ltd.

491045

71.
#8

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD